الحمد لله رب العالمين والعاقيه للمتقين ولا عدوان إلا على
الظالمين، والصلاة والسلام على المبعوث رحمةً للعالمين وعلى آله
وصحبه ومن اتبعهم بإحسانٍ إلى يوم الدين، أما بعد:

Allah Almighty says: (Many of the followers of the Book wish that they could turn you back into unbelievers after your faith, out of envy from themselves, (even) after the truth has become manifest to them) 109 Surah Al-Baqara, and He says: (and they will not cease fighting with you until they turn you back from your religion, if they can; and whoever of you turns back from his religion, then he dies while an unbeliever--these it is whose works shall go for nothing in this world and the hereafter, and they are the inmates of the fire; therein they shall abide) 217 Surah Al-Baqara, and the Most high says: (And the Jews will not be pleased with you, nor the Christians until you follow their religion. Say: Surely Allah's guidance that is the (true) guidance. And if you follow their desires after the knowledge that has come to you, you shall have no guardian from Allah, nor any helper) 120 Surah Al-Baqara, and He says: (They desire that you should disbelieve as they have disbelieved, so that you might be (all) alike) 89 Surah An-Nisa.

Allah Almighty is true, this is the custom of the polytheists towards the Muslims since long ago they envy them for the Dunya and they also envy them for their religion, since they are working continuously and cunning at day and night against the Muslims and to corrupt their religion and limiting their freedom in practicing its rituals, all that for oppression and enmity and out of envy from themselves.

My Muslim Ummah: the crusade launched by France today against the Muslims is part of this obvious reality that is recognized and confirmed by the holy Quran, even if it was denied by France as usual, so it isn't a surprise, when we found it implicating itself in disarray whenever it tries to justify its military intervention in Mali, its first contradiction when it took the appeal addressed to it by the Malian president as an excuse, and its second contradiction was taking the duty of protecting its community that is living in that country as an excuse, and it contradicted once again when it claimed that the main motive is to save the people of Azawad from the grip of the Jihadis, and it used other justifications but all of them were flimsy and they didn't convince even the French themselves, and today all the world knows that France is lying in its claim, since if it was really sincere it would have interfered in Syria where its community is bigger and more important and received repeated appeals from Syrian opposition.

Then what is claimed by France that the people Azawad were subjected to suppression and cruelty cannot be compared to what the Syrian people is being subjected to from systematic killing and displacement over two whole years while France remained indifferent looking to what is happening to the Muslims there from calamity looking spleenful with gladness, while Mali hastened to show its muscles arguing with hateful word and a falsehood, rather as soon as the invading French army entered the cities of (Gao, Timbuktu and Kidal) it unleashed the remnants of the vengeful Malian army and racist militias that are hateful to the native people of the country to spread murder, plunder, displacement and rape in the cities and villages, and it is impossible that these massacres occurred without the acceptance of France or gesture from it despite that it knows what those Malian soldiers carry from grudges against the people of the north.

And what indicates that it was premeditated its banning of any neutral media coverage, insisting that this war be with no images or witnesses so that the world only hear the news it says, and only see the images that it broadcasts.

My beloved Ummah: after it has been proven to us that the declared justifications of this crusade invasion isn't true then we have to search for its hidden motives, and the follower of the events doesn't need a lot of effort to uncover the intentions of the of the French government for that invasion, that could be limited to four main motives:

First motive: its religious:

The enmity of France towards the religion of Islam is old, since this state appeared as a global power, and it set out crusader colonial campaigns it didn't stop its aggression against the Muslims rather it continued to this day, although in recent times it began to take the forms dominated by the character of malice and guile and cunning, and exhuming the infrastructure of the Islamic civilization and identity intending to ruining and blur its features, without rushing to the use of military force, and this crusade is only another proof for the deep-rootedness of this enmity in the hearts of the French politicians, the old and current, liberals and socialists, moderates and extremists, they are all alike.

Second motive: its historical:

France still insists that its old colonies - including Mali - are purely regions of its influence and not for the other major countries like China, Russia and not even the United States, and that is why it behaves with these colonies like a guardian interfering in all its affairs small or big, internal or external.

Third motive: it's economical:

It is known that France has strategic economical interests in Africa, since the most important Uranium mines are in Niger in the land of Azawad, also the most important oil and natural gas felids are in Libya and Algeria which supplies France with the cheapest prices are located at the borders of Azawad so it perceives that the establishment of the Islamic Emirate in that land could expose its interests to danger, and in the inverted French logic every threat to its economical interests is a threat to its national security, by necessity will lead to war.

Fourth motive: is personal related to president Hollande:

Hollande was enthusiastic for this war that he considered it its most important decision in his political career, and for his ignorance and lack of experience and weak memory he thought that he could divert the attention of French by this war and distract them away from the escalating internal problems - this is on one hand-, on the other hand he thought he could gain a public sympathy that raises his credit or at least stops the decline of this credit in opinion polls.

O' Ummah of Islam: these reasons that we mentioned are the real motives of this crusade, or what would have harmed France if it left the Muslims in Mali practice the rituals of their religion, and establish among themselves the Sharia of their Lord, and call to virtues and prevent vices, since the nation is Muslim and land is a land of Islam, and Mali is thousands of miles away from France, what scares the politicians of France from implementing the Islamic Sharia in that faraway land? Didn't the brothers in the Ansar Al-Din do their best in trying to reassure all the parties that they won't be a threat to anyone internationally or regionally? And confirm that their goal is to practice their right of a decent life that is based on their religion, but according to the understanding of the Imams of Islam not as wanted by the Imams of Kufr.

Ironically when it began it began its invasion of north Mali to end the rule of the Islamic Sharia under the claim that it is harsh and inhuman despite that it is the most merciful and pure and just law known by mankind from Adam Alayhi Salām to this day, at this time the French parliament was gathered to discuss the law of disgrace, fire and shame, the law of same sex marriage which will remain a disgraceful stain in the forehead of humanity as a whole, and after two days of intensive discussions the supporters of immorality to pass this dirty project with a disgraceful majority may Allah fight them.

The advocates of this grave deviation who declared war against Allah and all His messengers and violated the Quran and even the Torah and Bible by this disgraceful law are the same advocates of this crusade that was launched against our Muslim people in Mali unjustly and aggressively to force them to leave the pure Sharia of their Lord and make them follow their madness and rebellion against the religions, minds and nature, what they are calling to is a great vice which the heavens may almost be rent thereat, and the earth cleave asunder, and the mountains fall down in pieces, it wasn't legalized by anyone neither in the dark ages and first Jahiliya or the medieval ages or even the people of Lot who were destroyed by Allah for practicing that immorality and destroyed their village by turning it upside down and rained on them stones of baked clay.

Does France think that it will survive the punishment of Allah? No I swear by who sent Mohammed with the Truth that it will taste what was tasted by the mighty nations, the Truth Almighty says: (What do they wait for then but the like of the days of those who passed away before them? Say: Wait then; surely I too am with you of those who wait) 102 Surah Yunus.

O' people of Islam all over the world: before this new crusade of France and its occupation for one of the Muslims lands we can only call all of you to a comprehensive and general mobilization, and ask you to support your brothers with all the kinds of support that you capable of, and we remind you that jihad after this aggression became an individual obligation on every capable person from you, since the issue of your brothers in Mali isn't only an issue of economic development and underdevelopment, unemployment and poverty, rather it is from the much more important than that it is an issue of religion being deformed and a nation eradicated and an identity destroyed, O' all Muslims it is an obligation on you to repel this assault by targeting the French interests everywhere because since the first day of this aggression since these interests have become legitimate targets for you. And if the French president who is ominous o himself and his people want his crusade to be swift, short and limited in location and time to prevent his country falling in a swamp similar to the one which America fell in Iraq and Afghanistan then it's an obligation on you Muslims to spoil his plan and drag him to a war that is open in time and location, to drain the economy of the French state and attrition of its capabilities that pushes it to retreat and deflation then it withdraws into seclusion in that despicable corner of that old continent that is no longer - due to its oppression and arrogance - the pillar of the world as it have been throughout the past two centuries and it won't return Allah willing.

O' Muslims: the last matter which we shouldn't overlook it at all times is ensuring the unity and helping one another in goodness and piety, and what goodness is more important than supporting an oppressed believing people that are subjected to the worst crusader aggression from several arrogant states?

Look at France how it didn't advance to fight the mujahidin despite their few numbers and modest weapons before seeking the support of all the Western states and mobilizing the armies of the African states allied with it and it motivated the security council and made it issue what it desires from resolutions to justify its aggression and provide a legal cover for it. We the people of Islam should be better than France by cooperation and support, and keeping our hands together, and it is enough for us that the Book of Allah is full of verses that urge us to this meaning and incite on it, Allah Almighty says: (and fight the pagans all together as they fight you all together. But know that Allah is with those who restrain themselves) 36 Surah At-Taubah, and He says: (Surely Allah loves those who fight in His way in ranks as if they were a firm and compact wall) 4 Surah As-Saff.

And Muslim you should know that a nation that is indulged in the swamp of immoralities and vices that it reached to this level of debauchery, shamelessness, misguidance and ignorance isn't worthy of causing any eeriness in your souls no matter how much its air force was superior, and France should know that what will resolve this religious war won't be the air force rather it will be the weapon of Aqeeda and Iman Allah willing.

As for the Islamic Sharia which because of it France invaded us Insha'Allah it will return to prevail on the land of Mali because the feeling of our people there of belonging to Islam is rooted in its conscience that cannot be destabilized by a force or army, especially when this army consists of homosexuals like the French army, so don't be scared from the talk of France about victory in that war since this is its wishes, since it became an aggressive colonial force it didn't enter a war without losing it in Europe itself, and in Indochina, Africa and the Middle East, and we know for sure that its fate today in Timbuktu, Gao and Kidal its fate will be worst than Dien Bien Phu in Vietnam, and it will taste in the mountains of Ifoghas what it tasted in the mountains of El'Ouanchariss, Gorgora and Aures, O' Muslims the moral is in the sweetness at the end and not the bitterness at the beginning.

(and Allah is the master of His affair, but most people do not know)

O' Allah, Revealer of the book, Disperser of the clouds, Defeater of the parties, defeat France and its followers since it has fought your religion, and stood against your Sharia, and killed your Awliya so perish it and those who allied with it, and aid your oppressed slaves in Mali and everywhere, Amin.

وآخر دعوانا أن الحمد لله رب العالمين.
